

Student Information Guide

Section 12

General

Are there any behaviors (both positive and negative) that significantly impact the student's performance?

Are there significant factors about the student's strengths, learning style, coping strategies or interests that the team should consider?

Are there any other significant factors about the student that the team should consider?

Does student fatigue easily or experience a change in performance at different times of the day?
